

Naresuan University International College is looking for lecturers for the English for Business Communications program, Human Resource Management program, International Business Management program, and Tourism Business Management program. Apply NOW!

English for Business Communications Program

Position: Lecturer

Vacancies: 3 (2 Foreign Lecturers and 1 Thai Lecturer)

Conditions of Employment:

Category A: For native speakers of English

- 14 hours of teaching/week (extra pay for extra teaching hours)
- Research commitment
- Contributions in program/College activities
- Academic advisor to students
- 37,350 baht/month
- Visa and work permit fees paid for by Naresuan University while working for Naresuan University

Category B: For Thai lecturers

- 10 hours of teaching/week (extra pay for extra teaching hours)
- Research commitment
- Contributions in program/College activities
- Academic advisor to students
- 26,010 baht + 2,000 baht incentive

Qualifications of Applicants:

Category A: For native speakers of English

- A native speaker of English
- A Master's Degree or higher in Communication / Business Communication / English / Linguistics from an acknowledged academic institute
- A positive attitude towards working in the Thai contexts and a quality of a good team player
- Prior work experience in related fields and research experience and publications are advantageous.

Category B: For Thai lecturers

- A Master's Degree or higher in Communication / Business Communication / English / Linguistics from an acknowledged academic institute
- A positive attitude towards working in the Thai contexts and a quality of a good team player
- Prior work experience in related fields and research experience and publications are advantageous.
- A minimum TOEFL score of 580, or TOEFL IBT 95, or IELTS 7.0

Application Details:

Apply in person on Monday to Friday from 08.30 to 16.30 at:

Naresuan University International College (NUIC)
Naresuan University
Muang District, Phitsanulok 65000
Thailand

Or apply in writing to: marys@nu.ac.th (topic: Application for Lecturer)

Please attach the necessary documents (to state the applicant's qualifications) with the cover letter, a CV, academic credentials, and a photo of the applicant.

Application Period:	25 October – 31 December 2016
Job Interview Period:	1– 15 December 2016
Result Announcement:	16 December 2016
Report to Work and Starting Date:	1 January 2017

Human Resource Management Program

Position: Lecturer

Vacancies: 3 (2 Foreign Lecturers and 1 Thai Lecturer)

Conditions of Employment:

Category A: For native speakers of English

- 14 hours of teaching/week (extra pay for extra teaching hours)
- Research commitment
- Contributions in program/College activities
- Academic advisor to students
- 37,350 baht/month
- Visa and work permit fees paid for by Naresuan University while working for Naresuan University

Category B: For Thai lecturers

- 10 hours of teaching/week (extra pay for extra teaching hours)
- Research commitment
- Contributions in program/College activities
- Academic advisor to students
- 26,010 baht + 2,000 baht incentive

Qualifications of Applicants:

Category A: For native speakers of English

- A Master's Degree or higher in Human Resource Management / Human Resource Development from an acknowledged academic institute
- A positive attitude towards working in the Thai contexts and a quality of a good team player
- Prior teaching experience, research experience and publications and/or work experience related to Human Resource Management/ Human Resource Training in private corporates are advantageous.

Category B: For Thai lecturers

- A Master's Degree or higher in Human Resource Management / Human Resource Development from an acknowledged academic institute
- A positive attitude towards working in the Thai contexts and a quality of a good team player
- Prior teaching experience, research experience and publications and/or work experience related to Human Resource Management/ Human Resource Training in private corporates are advantageous.
- A minimum TOEFL score of 580, or TOEFL IBT 95, or IELTS 7.0

Application Details:

Apply in person on Monday to Friday from 08.30 to 16.30 at:

Naresuan University International College (NUIC)
Naresuan University
Muang District, Phitsanulok 65000
Thailand

Or apply in writing to: marys@nu.ac.th (topic: Application for Lecturer)

Please attach the necessary documents (to state the applicant's qualifications) with the cover letter, a CV, academic credentials, and a photo of the applicant.

Application Period:	25 October – 31 December 2016
Job Interview Period:	1– 15 December 2016
Result Announcement:	16 December 2016
Report to Work and Starting Date:	1 January 2017

International Business Management Program

Position: Lecturer

Vacancies: 3 (2 Foreign Lecturers and 1 Thai Lecturer)

Conditions of Employment:

Category A: For native speakers of English

- 14 hours of teaching/week (extra pay for extra teaching hours)
- Research commitment
- Contributions in program/College activities
- Academic advisor to students
- 37,350 baht/month
- Visa and work permit fees paid for by Naresuan University while working for Naresuan University

Category B: For Thai lecturers

- 10 hours of teaching/week (extra pay for extra teaching hours)
- Research commitment
- Contributions in program/College activities
- Academic advisor to students
- 26,010 baht + 2,000 baht incentive

Qualifications of Applicants:

Category A: For native speakers of English

- A Master's Degree or higher in International Business Management / International Trade / Business Administration from an acknowledged academic institute
- A positive attitude towards working in the Thai contexts and a quality of a good team player
- Prior work experience in related fields and research experience and publications are advantageous.

Category B: For Thai lecturers

- A Master's Degree or higher in International Business Management / International Trade / Business Administration from an acknowledged academic institute
- A positive attitude towards working in the Thai contexts and a quality of a good team player
- Prior work experience in related fields and research experience and publications are advantageous.
- A minimum TOEFL score of 580, or TOEFL IBT 95, or IELTS 7.0

Application Details:

Apply in person on Monday to Friday from 08.30 to 16.30 at:

Naresuan University International College (NUIC)
Naresuan University
Muang District, Phitsanulok 65000
Thailand

Or apply in writing to: marys@nu.ac.th (topic: Application for Lecturer)

Please attach the necessary documents (to state the applicant's qualifications) with the cover letter, a CV, academic credentials, and a photo of the applicant.

Application Period:	25 October – 31 December 2016
Job Interview Period:	1– 15 December 2016
Result Announcement:	16 December 2016
Report to Work and Starting Date:	1 January 2017

Tourism Business Management Program

Position: Lecturer

Vacancies: 3 (2 Foreign Lecturers and 1 Thai Lecturer)

Conditions of Employment:

Category A: For native speakers of English

- 14 hours of teaching/week (extra pay for extra teaching hours)
- Research commitment
- Contributions in program/College activities
- Academic advisor to students
- 37,350 baht/month
- Visa and work permit fees paid for by Naresuan University while working for Naresuan University

Category B: For Thai lecturers

- 10 hours of teaching/week (extra pay for extra teaching hours)
- Research commitment
- Contributions in program/College activities
- Academic advisor to students
- 26,010 baht + 2,000 baht incentive

Qualifications of Applicants:

Category A: For native speakers

- A Master's Degree or higher in Tourism Management / Hospitality Management / MICE Management from an acknowledged academic institute
- A positive attitude towards working in the Thai contexts and a quality of a good team player
- Prior work experience in related fields and research experience and publications are advantageous.

Category B: For Thai lecturers

- A Master's Degree or higher in Tourism Management / Hospitality Management / MICE Management from an acknowledged academic institute
- A positive attitude towards working in the Thai contexts and a quality of a good team player
- Prior work experience in related fields and research experience and publications are advantageous.
- A minimum TOEFL score of 580, or TOEFL IBT 95, or IELTS 7.0

Application Details:

Apply in person on Monday to Friday from 08.30 to 16.30 at:

Naresuan University International College (NUIC)
Naresuan University
Muang District, Phitsanulok 65000
Thailand

Or apply in writing to: marys@nu.ac.th (topic: Application for Lecturer)

Please attach the necessary documents (to state the applicant's qualifications) with the cover letter, a CV, academic credentials, and a photo of the applicant.

Application Period:	25 October – 31 December 2016
Job Interview Period:	1– 15 December 2016
Result Announcement:	16 December 2016
Report to Work and Starting Date:	1 January 2017